Bulletin of Academia Historica

Notes for Contributors

1. Bulletin of Academia Historica is an academic publication of four issues a year (March, June, September and December).
2. For the purpose of promoting research, it is open to all potential contributors in the areas of Republic of China history, Taiwan history, etc. Research papers, critical essays on particular areas of scholarship, book reviews, and overview articles of historical materials are all welcome, but they should not have been published elsewhere.
3. The average length of research papers is 20,000 words, and should not exceed 40,000 words. The length of critical essays should be kept within the range of 10,000-20,000 words. For overview articles of historical materials and book reviews, it should be kept within the range of 5,000-10,000 words respectively. Please follow the format of this Bulletin, which can be accessed from our website.
4. Manuscripts submitted to this Bulletin must not be submitted to other publications at the same time. Along with your manuscript, please provide your personal data (name, affiliated institution, address or cellphone number, etc.), title of the manuscript, your English name, a 400-word abstract in both Chinese and English, and 3-5 key words. Please submit your manuscript both in Word form and PDF form.
5. Manuscripts submitted will be sent to two reviewers, critical essays, overview articles of historical materials and book reviews will be sent to one reviewer. The reviews accord to the criteria covered in "Manuscript Review Sheet of Academia Historica": theoretical or academic value, research methodology, research materials, organization and structure, language and style. And they will be discussed by "the Research Review Committee of Academia Historica." If necessary, the third reviewer will be consulted.
6. Once a manuscript has been accepted for publication, it will be put to print in accordance with the final version of Word file provided by the author, and author's remuneration will be paid.
7. The authors of research papers and critical essays will also receive two copies of the Bulletin, but those of book reviews and overview articles of historical materials will receive only one copy of the Bulletin.
8. The author is fully responsible for plagiarism issues. This Bulletin does not deal with such matters.
